Subject: Invitation to the International Scientific Conference

Dear colleagues,

Al-Hawash Private University is delighted to invite you to participate in a three-day multidisciplinary International Scientific Conference entitled “New and Sustainable Insights in Medical, Engineering, Law and Entrepreneurship Sciences.” The Conference is to be held on April 2-4, 2020 at Al-Hawash Private University, Al Hawash, Homs, Syria. The aim of the Conference is to provide the platform for academicians and researchers to exchange ideas and experience and to share their research findings and educational practices with the academic community. The Conference will also provide a great opportunity to network with scholars from different countries, develop research collaborations and start new projects.

Conference Topics:

Medicine: Molecular Medicine, Pediatrics and Orthopedic Surgery

Dentistry: Digital Dentistry

Pharmacy: The implementation of orphan drugs legislative policies and regulations to support producing high-quality drugs in Syria

Cosmetology: Non-Surgical Cosmetology: Horizons and Consequences

Engineering:

- Steel Alternatives in construction and their use in rebuilding Syria.
- Dr. Zaha Hadid’s architectural designs and their use in rebuilding Syria.
- The fifth generation technology in Informatics Engineering

Law Studies: E-Legislation

Entrepreneurship: The role of entrepreneurship in rebuilding and development of Syria.

Prospective participants are required to submit a participation form and a short abstract of their presentation (in English or Arabic) to the following email addresses:

hpu.conference2020@gmail.com, info@hpu.edu.sy

The abstract submission deadline: March 1st, 2020.
